Kyra's Big Anniversary

The Closer star tells Us about 20 years with Kevin Bacon

KYRA SEDGWICK DOESN'T SPEND HOURS IN THE gym. Her stay-svelte secret? "A lot of sex!" she tells Us with a laugh. It's fitting, then, that the actress, 42, and hubby Kevin Bacon, 50, are celebrating their 20th anniversary on September 4. But that's not all the NYC native is commemorating: She's back as Brenda Leigh Johnson, the hard-nosed (and sugar-addicted) L.A.P.D. deputy chief, in the fourth season of The Closer (TNT, Mondays, 9 P.M.). The busy mom of two (son Travis is 19; daughter Sosie is 16) shares her love secrets with Us.

Q: Brenda got engaged at the end of last season. Will we see her walk down the aisle? I think it is going to be a process that will take some time because she is a commitmentphobe. This season is about power and how it manifests itself and how powerless we are over our lives.

Q: Well, you're not a commitmentphobe. What's the secret to being married for 20 years? The secret is not thinking that there is a secret.

Q: Do you and Kevin have something special planned for your anniversary?

We are going to have a big dance party. Everyone is invited! We like to dance, but we never get the chance because whenever we start dancing, people start taking pictures and we look stupid. We want to privately have a party and be together and dance the night away.

SARAH CROSSBART

"It will be fun and interesting," Sedgwick says of the new season.

How is working with her man (Bacon directed the July 14 Closer episode)? "He is amazing," she says.
